

Masters Spring Slalom Camp!

A YOUR TURN Event

WHERE: Loveland Ski Area, CO

WHEN: May 18-21, 2026

WHAT: Four days of slalom training: focus on technique and line with particular emphasis on tactics for combinations (delays, flushes, hairpins). Each of the first three days will feature a particular combination set with various offset and distance, within a course of open gates, to allow athletes to improve tactics, gain comfort, and increase speed in combinations. Final day: Slalom training set to USSS masters race specifications.

Also:

- Daily video analysis
- Afternoon conditioning sessions tailored to improving the physical abilities needed to ski slalom faster: lateral quickness, agility, core strength, hip mobility.

DAILY SCHEDULE:

7:00am: Arrive at Loveland Ski Area, pick up lift ticket, short meeting.

7:30am-8:00am: Set course, inspection on Upper Switchback.

8:00am-10:00am: Slalom training on Upper Switchback - lap from mid-station up on Lift #3 at the Loveland Valley.

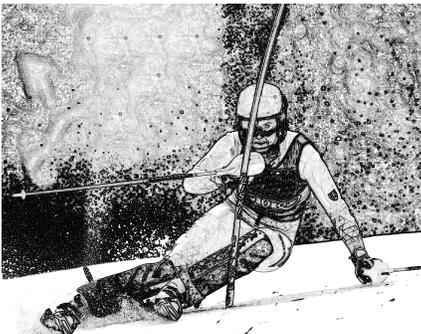

11:00am-Noon: Video analysis, location TBA.

2:30pm-3:30pm: (Days 1-3) Conditioning/mobility for slalom, location TBA.

COST: $865 for 4 days, includes lift ticket.

LODGING: Silverthorne is the closest town to the Loveland Ski Area (12 miles). Numerous motels and vacation rentals offer a range of options for lodging. The camp occurs during a slow season, so expect to find lodging at greatly reduced rates compared to winter prices.

TO REGISTER contact Jack Ballard:
T. 406-696-9841
E. jackballard62@msn.com

COACHES:

Jack Ballard: M.A., M.Ed.

Camp director. USSS certified coach and official, 10 years dedicated masters coaching at Red Lodge Mountain, Big Sky Resort, and numerous masters camps across the USA. Former university lecturer, including graduate courses in educational psychology and human learning.

"Jack is the professor. So very technical and precise when it comes to technique and tactics. He has made a huge difference in my skiing. He can pinpoint things that no one else talks about and gives actionable advice." -Athlete, 2025 New England Masters Camp, Mt. Snow, VT

Jeremy Wolf: M.F.A.

USSS-certified coach and official. Assistant Head Coach, Silver Run Ski Team (Red Lodge, MT). 10 years+ coaching experience – all ski racing levels and ages. Former coach, Schweitzer Mountain and USCSA National Champions Rocky Mountain College. Former FIS, collegiate racer. Lecturer in creative writing at Rocky Mountain College.